He's drawing a magic circle to quell the mysterious phenomenon inside the school~

Chairman.
The badges on your breasts give us the power of spells we need to move.
There's barely enough for these three
Originally the mysterious phenomenon are maintained by this power of spells
The school's power of spells has been lost temporarily
-that's right

The sacred occupations of your homes is as old as the school's mysterious phenomenons and the driving force behind them
I guess we have a bit of time to explain it

Saint Mar a Church
This school is in the dead center of Kazumi-kun's North East Buddhist Temple, Asahina-kun's Noth West Shinto Temple and to the south is Harute -kun's house in the Christian Church
Together they make a holy triangle

and what followed was very horrible
Right now the school is
When Haruto-kun's Mana Statue was knocked over the balance was thrown off!!
That Holy Triangle creates the powerful magnetic field that this school's spiritual power is drawn to Perfectly ordinary
It's became a completely normal school...
But its only temporarily
perfectly ordinary Normal...?
But the birth of that magnetic field is just one of the main points
Why would I lie...!?
ARE YOU SERIOUS ABOUT THIS!!??

The evil of the suppressing demon world is Until now it was always the seven wonders of the pool were the seven spirits that sealed the opening

It's fine considering the circumstances!!
But Kazumi -kun
In an emergency you get posessed too easily!
Therefore write th s spell on your body please!
I thought I was in trouble there for a moment!!
I get it!! It's a Hoichi the Earless operation!!*
All right!!

*Ho chi the Earless is a blind M nstrel from Japanese Mythology who had been haunted by a ghost of a samurai To make h m invisible to the ghost they painted o holy sutra on his body but forget his ears In the end the samura could not see anything but the ears so he r pped them off as proof the rest of the minstrel was gone Ho chi was no longer haunted but he had lost his ears thus the name. School Ghost Whatever Handbook

Part 2

~ Pool's Ghost STory ~

It's a bit abrupt, but speaking of summer, of course it that means vacation!... But not just that. For the story's convienence, today it's about the pool. So, What are we going to talk about? The Pools Ghost STory of course!
First off, there's getting pulled under the waves by the feet, or something like the 4th lane where the waves are cursed. By the pool, even though it's only dead students' souls that are the cause of things happening, none are lacking in originality. On that note, we can evaluate them, like the guy that causes blood that that breathes out in the shower. Though, I'm being just a bit reserved. In other places you hear about ghosts come out of the clothes changing room.
You guys take care! This has been Asahina Mutsuki.
